WHAT IS THE STREAMLINED PROCEDURE?

1040Abroad

Many U.S. expats do not know that they have to file their tax returns while living abroad. The IRS introduced amnesty programs called “Streamlined Procedures”. Here are all the necessary facts that you need to know about becoming tax compliant using this program.

- This is amnesty program and it is available to taxpayers who failed to report foreign financial assets and pay all tax due as a result of non-willful conduct.
- It is available to U.S. persons, who have spent at least 330 days in at least 1 out of the last 3 tax years outside the U.S.
- Under this program you need to file 3 years of delinquent Federal tax returns and 6 years of Foreign Bank Account Reporting (FBAR).
- All penalties will be waived for eligible U.S. persons residing abroad.
- You need to have a taxpayer identification number (typically a SSN) in order to file under the Streamlined procedures.
- You might be eligible for a refundable credit resulting in refunds for becoming compliant.

WHO CAN QUALIFY?

To take advantage of The Streamlined Procedures you must meet certain criteria, including:

- Having spent at least 330 days in at least 1 out of the last 3 years outside the United States.
- Certify that your failure to file the tax returns was non-willful conduct (1040 Abroad will guide you and prepare the certification statement for you).

Taxpayers who want to participate in the streamlined procedures need a valid Taxpayer Identification Number.

For U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and certain other individuals, the proper TIN is a valid Social Security Number (SSN).

For individuals who are not eligible for an SSN or ITIN, your tax return will not be processed under the streamlined procedures, unless a submission made under the streamlined procedures is accompanied by a complete ITIN application.

WHO IS BEHIND 1040 ABROAD?

Just like you, I know what it's like to be an American citizen living and/or working abroad. The difference is that I studied the American tax system exhaustively after my corporate finance career, so I had an insider's advantage when it came to staying tax compliant on my travels!

I grew up in France, studied and worked in America, then I moved to Canada and I still travel to new countries as often as I can. At one point in my life the French government saw me as French, the American government saw me as American, and the Canadian government saw me as a Canadian resident.

I never thought I would be so popular with that many governments at once!

I've been a tourist, a foreign resident, an immigrant, and a citizen, and now I'm an expatriate living and working abroad...which has given me a unique and in-depth insight into the many regulations it all entails, none more so than filing taxes.

And that's what compelled me to write a book on the topic. The book got snapped up by so many desperate American expats struggling to understand tax compliance that it became an Amazon best-seller.

I set up 1040 Abroad to cut through the scare-tactics, and provide a straightforward speedy service to help Americans abroad file their taxes with accuracy and ease, catering to your unique situation. To date we've helped more than 1,000 people do exactly this.

My mission is to help fellow expatriates like you to live a more successful life abroad, without ever having to risk your freedom, career, or finances by staying 100% tax compliant as you go.

Here's to YOUR stress-free freedom!
